

Choir Concert Rubric

Student Name:

Grade:

Concert:

Choir:

Total Score:

Skill Area	Points Possible	Meets Expectation	Below Expectation	Unsatisfactory Performance	No Evidence
Prepared - Student is prepared with all material to be performed. Student has demonstrated proficiency through class participation.	50	Student demonstrates that he/she is prepared for the performance. Student participates regularly in class and receives a proficient score on all singing quizzes for this concert.	Student has a basic understanding of the material to be performed; but fails to demonstrate that he/she is prepared sufficiently for the concert. Student may also receive less than proficient on singing quizzes for this concert.	Student fails to demonstrate preparedness for the material to be performed at this concert. Student fails to show consistent participation in class, and may not have obtained a proficient score on singing quizzes for this concert.	Student shows no evidence of being prepared for the concert.
Punctual - Student is on time and ready to perform.	50	Student is on time for call and is ready to receive further instruction from the director prior to the performance. Student is on time and in place for all stage direction during the performance.	Student is not on time; and/or is not "performance ready" to receive instruction prior to the performance.	Student fails to be present on time for call, and he/she may fail to appear on time for any stage direction given during the performance.	Student fails to be present for the concert.
Professionalism - Student has a professional demeanor; wearing the appropriate performance attire for their ensemble.	100	Student appears professional; wearing the appropriate performance attire. The student conducts him/herself in a professional manner during the performance. Student demonstrates appropriate audience behavior during their peers' performances.	Student appears to be unprofessional; and may be missing a portion of his/her performance attire. Student may fail to demonstrate appropriate audience behavior while their peers were performing.	Student fails to report wearing the appropriate performance attire, or he/she conducts him/herself in an unprofessional manner during the performance and/or while others are performing.	Student fails to participate in the concert.
Presentation - Student is actively engaged in the performance.		Student actively engages in the performance; showing appropriate and expressive gestures during the performance. (Choreography, Stage Direction, and Facial Expressions.)	Student occasionally engages in the performance; showing limited expressive gestures during the performance. (Choreography, Stage Direction, and Facial Expressions.)	Student fails to engage in performance, "going through the motions." Student lacks expressive gestures during the performance. (Choreography, Stage Direction, and Facial Expressions.)	Student fails to present him/herself at the concert.
Effort & Collaboration - Student puts forth effort and works well with their ensemble to present a performance.		Student works well with others while performing, creating a positive performance environment. Student puts forth effort to work well with others, making the performance successful.	Student occasionally works well with others, and may not put forth consistent effort to making the performance a success.	Student shows little effort, and does not work well with his/her peers to make the performance successful.	Student fails to show effort and/or collaboration with peers.
Concert Reflection - Student reflects on successes and areas of improvement of performance.	50	Student writes in complete sentences, addressing all areas of the "Concert Reflection" worksheet. Students also participate and engage in classroom discussion.	Student is absent when the video of the concert is shown to the class. Student is unable to complete the assignment when it is due, but schedules a time to make-up the assignment.	Student fails to address all areas of the Concert Reflection worksheet. Significant areas are not discussed. Student also fails to answer in Complete Sentences.	Assignment not submitted.

Performance in Concert

Additional Notes